Xubao Golf Club | 旭宝高尔夫俱乐部

Xubao Golf Club was built by designer Bobby J. Martin, a member of the American Nicklaus Group. When constructing the course, it made full use of the winding natural features of the Jiangnan water town and carefully designed it to make use of the long grass and lakes and rivers surrounding the fairway. The strange and changeable winds and undulating fairways create a cool challenge for golfers. Since the golf course is close to Dianshan Lake, the beautiful scenery of Jiangnan Water Town is integrated between the fairways, making it a natural fit.
